

Merchandising Volunteer

Do you enjoy researching rare and unique items? Do you like reviving older items to their original glory? If this sounds like you, please join our friendly team of volunteers to prepare items for sale. Volunteers in this role are vital in maintaining good quality control standards and ensuring the items we sell are in good, useable condition.

Duties/Responsibilities:

- Prepare donated items for sale, including cleaning, testing, researching and pricing items
- Assist media volunteer by organizing items to be photographed for online sales
- Maintain a clean and well organized space, focusing on processing items in a first in, first out format

This is a physical task that requires standing and minor walking for up to 3 hours. This position can either be completed alone or with one other volunteer. If volunteers are paired together, both must wear masks and adhere to the 6 feet social distancing guidelines.

Training is provided and no previous experience is necessary.

Shifts currently available: Tuesday and Friday mornings from 9am-12pm.

Please apply by contacting the Red Door Manager, Erin Kohlhaas, at reddoorthriftanacortes@gmail.com.
